

Governor Markell Orders Flags Lowered on Friday, May 15 for Peace Officers Memorial Day

DOVER – Everyday across Delaware, thousands of police officers put their lives on the line to protect the citizens of the First State. In honor of the men and women who have died while serving and protecting Delaware, in recognition of Police Week and in concurrence with an order from President Obama, Governor Markell has ordered the American and Delaware flags at state buildings and facilities be flown at half-staff on Peace Officers Memorial Day, Friday, May 15.
